

Integration by involvement

An outline how to start communicate with prospective migrant mediators

Five important concepts

- Find
- Contact
- Invite
- Meet
- Communicate

FIND

those important associations you believe and have agreed upon can help fulfill the aim of our project e.g.:

- Migrants' associations
- Cultural associations
- International friendship associations
- Other association you consider being important for the project

CONTACT

- The associations you have found by calling a person or sending him/her a written letter in which you present yourself, your organisation AND the aim of the project
- Ask for a personal meeting, if required.

INVITE

- One or the person you have contacted to a meeting with other associations, if you have found any interested.
- Be sure to offer a time suitable for all invited.
- Tell how how long the meeting will take.
- Send a schedule of what will be discussed.

MEET

- All the organisations and present your organisation and the SAME-project
- Be sure a person in charge of your organisation is present
- Offer some refreshments

COMMUNICATE

- On a regular basis with the organisations invited after the meeting
- Send information of your plans for developing the education organisation of yours
- If possible, start a project with one or more organisation to find methods how to make their members and your new students comfortable and feeling safe in school
